Major contributions to Neurosurgery and Neurosciences:

- He established Neurosurgery as a specialty in India, when very little was known about brain tumours and other surgical conditions of nervous system.
- He started Stereotactic and Functional Neurosurgery in Madras, along with his team comprising Drs. V. Balasubramaniam, S. Kalyanaraman, T. S. Kanaka and his Neurology colleagues Drs. G. Arjundas and K. Jagannathan. Madras Institute of Neurology became one of the major centers for Stereotactic Surgery and several pioneering original work was done here, which have won international acclaim.
- His work on the Surgery for Tuberculoma of brain, Angiographic appearance of brain tuberculosis, Delayed decompression for spinal cord injury, Management of growing fractures of skull are recognized internationally.
- He has trained many Neurosurgeons, who have won a place for themselves all over India and around the world.

Authors and Honours:

- He was awarded the prestigious Padma Bhushan, Dhanvantri awards and was made honorary Brigadier of the Indian Army.
- He was the President of the World Federation of Neurosurgical Societies in 1989.

References